Disdains Friday 13th

Boxcar Myrtle Runs for Mayor

BURLINGTON, Iowa (AP) Boxcar Myrtle isn't a superstitious gypsy.

Disdaining a Friday-the-13th jinx, Miss Myrtle I. French announced her candidacy as mayor of Burlington.

QUEEN OF HOBOES

She was tagged Boxcar Myrtle when she was named Queen of the Hoboes at an Iowa convention a few years ago.

Coyly giving her age as "thirty-nine and a half, more or less," Myrtle said she received five write-in votes in the last election "and I wasn't even running."

Main plank in Myrtle's platform is a public restroom.

Cheltenham Ladies' College, one of the leading English girls' colleges, was founded in 1854.

Stunning Styles in Warm, March Sunlight

Mrs. Weir is the former Noreen Winifred Ritchie, younger daughter of Mrs. Winifred Ritchie, Amphion Street, and the late Mr. Robert W. Ritchie. The groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Weir, are from Windsor, Ontario.

Mrs. Walter Large, senior attendant, wore iridescent taffeta in rose pink and carried pink and white carnations; bridesmaids, the Misses Beth Thomson and Pat Stoddart wore sapphire blue, and flower girl Karen Davison wore peach and carried a colonial bouquet of daisies.
